Does the ELT support the initiation of the Sustainability Project Team? (Attachment - Project Initiation). Note: The ELT has already expressed support for said project team, however, it is important to review the initiation form and document this support.	Olga and Thomas	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ELT already expressed support of project team - official initiation form developed - thumbs up
Does the ELT support the adoption of the Advisory Committee framework and support structure as revised (Attachment)?	Tressa Tabares	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Changes and recommendations incorporated - PES and ASET first reviewed draft document - purpose was to investigate and document work relative to advisory committees - document provides some framework for development or discontinuation of advisory committee - recognized difference between mandated advisory committees and those desired by the college - clarifies that advisory committees are not decision-making bodies but rather advisory to a decision-making college body; - IGOR to become repository for work of advisory committees - question: why does request for advisory committee need to come to ELT if committee is mandated - question: is IGOR the desired format - use of IGOR received mixed reviews by instructional area deans - for accreditation central repository is important - mandated advisory committees are not part of governance - suggestion: AVP (or designee) can provide an annual list of mandated advisory committees for set-up in IGOR - many advisory committees have been operating on their own for years and will take some transition time for improved process - question: do students have access to meeting notes; notes could have valuable information needed by students (i.e., honors) - question: can IGOR provide some notification to everyone involved - question: can Los Rios Program Advisory Committee Handbook (currently dated 2007) be updated

- Academic Senate bringing forward two placeholders for advisory committees
 - thumbs up

DISCUSSION ITEMS:

Question	Person(s) Responsible	Notes and Next Steps
How is the College moving forward with critical professional development and training during the same time the Institutional Professional Development Plan is being developed? Thomas Greene and Others	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - interest expressed in bringing trauma-informed care training to a broader audience - approach is used in health care, counseling, etc. and focuses on how past trauma influences an individual's behavior moving forward - focuses on getting to the core and addressing issue behind the behavior as opposed to just reacting to behavior - smaller scale training provided to Achieve team - incoming CTL director is currently working to coordinate more training opportunities - college is looking to increase the ability of all interested staff to attend convocation
SEA Program Report	Lisa Lawrenson	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - work accomplished by subgroup of Student Success Council - some work completed w/o benefit of data from CCCCO - SEA (Student Equity & Achievement) is integration of BSI, SSSP, SEP - next step: research office will update data; expecting additional clarification from the state in the near future - concern expressed by ESL related to categories of disproportionately impacted and that the college is not capturing all the data we should - a conspicuous lack of ESL noted in the plan - plan authors would welcome a statement from ESL faculty for inclusion
