| Question | Person(s) Responsible | Notes and Decision(s) | Next Steps |
| Are there any suggestions for changes to the notes from the previous meeting? | Sarah Lehmann | 0 | Notes from previous meeting were approved by consensus with no changes. |
| ACTION ITEM: Student Success Perspectives: Does the Council approve the suggested modifications to the Perspectives, based on the feedback and discussions throughout the past semester? Input requested: How should "expertise working with DI students" be determined? | Sarah Lehmann | | ACTION ITEM: Consensus to move the Student Success Council Perspectives to the sponsoring entity, Executive Leadership Team (ELT) for approval. Currently proposed Student Success Perspectives (roles) would increase the total number of Council Member from 20 to 25. Three new perspectives under Basic Skills including Math, English and English as a Second Language (ESL) were already approved by consensus. Discussion about the "expertise" criteria proposed for 4 Faculty Representatives for Disproportionately Impacted (DI) students could be determined by the following: 1) self-identify; 2) Academic and Classified Senates ask constituents to write a short paragraph reflecting interest; 3) timing of decision could wait for President Dixon to have her discussions. |
| ACTION ITEM: DI-API Project Team Report: Second Reading. Does the Council support the recommendations from the DI-API Project Team? Are there any questions or comments for the | Frank Kobayashi & Sarah Lehmann | | ACTION ITEM: Consensus to move the DI-API Project Team Report: Second Reading to the sponsoring entity, Executive Leadership Team (ELT) for approval. Co-Leads reviewed the updates to the draft of the DI-API Project Team Report's Second Reading. Four main updates included: 1) added information on the surge in anti-Asian sentiment to the Preface; 2) additions about intersectionality, gaps and resources in income disparities to History and Context section; 3) added the Racial Triangulation Theory to the Conceptual Framework section; and 4) added specific programming to address crises or changes affecting API students to Recommendations section. |

| How does the lens of "cultural wealth" impact how we deliver Career Services to students? Vivian Dillon, Work Experience & Internship Coordinator, will join us to share how she has applied Cultural Wealth Theory to her trainings around internships. | Vivian Dillon | Guest Faculty Coordinator for Work Experience gave a presentation about cultural wealth and its impact on internships sponsored by the Teaching & Learning Institute: "Applying an Equity Lens to the ARC Work Experience & Internship Program." Conversations among employers about diversity and inclusion increased after the George Floyd incident and several large employers such as Target, Google, Adidas and Estee Lauder have pledged to increase its diversity in workforce. Equity advocacy for Work Experience discussed concepts in types of equity capital: linguistic, aspirational, familial, social, navigational, and resistance. In advocating for equity by employers for Work Experience students, questions about flexible scheduling, "virtual" internships, flexible work attire and discounts on clothes and equipment, plus paid versus unpaid internships, transportation expenses and a mentor program are all on the table. |
