DISCUSSION ITEMS:

Question	Person(s) Responsible	Notes and Next Steps
Success Rate by Modality Report	Jen Laflam & Yuj Shimizu	A member of the research team came to discuss the attached report concerning course success rates between online and on-ground classes. - The timeframe was Spring '21, Fall '21, and Spring '22. - Overall, course success rates were slightly higher for On-ground modalities vs Online modalities. - Traditionally disproportionately impacted students success rates were higher for On-ground modalities vs Online modalities. - Course success rates were higher for On-ground modalities vs Online modalities for all genders. - More information and graphs can be found in the attached report.
Learning Communities - Priority Registration	David Austin	The Council was asked to discuss the possibility of granting Priority Registration to students from ARC Learning Communities. - This would help support all marginalized groups. - Sends a message to all DI groups that they are welcomed at ARC. - What changes would this require at ARC? At LRCCD?
