		Open Access WAC Resource (Janay):
--	--	-----------------------------------

Changes to Writing Across the Curriculum Program The ARC WAC Program is renaming itself as the Writing Center. Instead of having to enroll in an English class to access writing support for their classes, students will soon be able to make in-person and online appointments or drop-in to the LRC Writing Center for help. The Writing Center is open to all students this semester. Online and in-person appointments will be available starting Spring 2025.	Janay Overing (1:30pm)	-Free writing support available for all students, faculty, and staff. -Open to everyone, providing inclusive access to writing assistance. -Drop-in hours: Monday through Thursday, 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM.
HSI Overview	Uriel Delgado (2pm)	HSI Grant (Uriel/Rick Ramirez): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -The LatinX Center is now fully operational, with Marianna joining as the new specialist. -The center is considering a neutral name, with options like "El Centro" and others being discussed. -The grant's primary goals are to increase retention, improve transfer rates, and support first-time Latinx students. -Funding: $3 million over the next three years, approximately $600K per year from the Department of Education. -Data Collection: Key focus for tracking the success of grant initiatives. (PowerPoint available from HSI for further details).
