Question	Person(s) Responsible	Notes and Next Steps
How to disseminate information to students about evening study spaces (Tech Ed & STEM)?	Angela Milano	- Students have requested that faculty announce the availability of study spaces. Consider having the Academic Senate assist with dissemination. - Possible idea: Coordinate with the Public Information Office (PIO) to promote study space availability. HomeBases can manage logistics such as operating hours, after-hours access, and designated quiet study times. - Signage is needed to clearly identify and designate study areas.
